

THE CAPITAL CONNECTION

Shelby County Board of Education Capital Needs and Facilities Committee Update

MEETING SUMMARY

On July 14, the Capital Needs and Facilities Committee meeting discussed a donation to the Shrine School and the sale of former Graceland Elementary and Magnolia Elementary. The committee also provided an overall facilities update including a monthly progress report of the capital projects in the District.

DONATIONS

SHRINE POOL RENOVATION DONATION

During the committee meeting, the Board of Education was presented a donation acceptance proposal for the Shrine School to upgrade the swimming pool and resurface the decking around the pool. The donation in the amount of $16,700 was approved by the Shriners on May 18, 2021. The Shrine School serves students grade Pre-K - 12 with multiple disabilities and dual diagnoses ages 4-22 years old.

BUILDING SALES

SALE OF GRACELAND AND MAGNOLIA ELEMENTARY

Updates were provided on the sale of two former elementary schools. The land of the former Graceland Elementary has been proposed to be developed into single-family housing on the 13.1 acres of the former school.

Circles of Success Learning Academy, a charter school serving students grades K-5, requested to purchase former Magnolia Elementary School. The 68,000, 6-acre school.
