

ASSIGNMENT OF STUDENTS TO CLASSES

I. PURPOSE

To outline the requirements for assignment of students to classes.

II. SCOPE

This policy applies to all Shelby County Schools.

III. POLICY STATEMENT

The assignment of students to classes and classes to teachers is the responsibility of the Principal. Students shall have completed the appropriate prerequisite class/course before being assigned to a class/course, except when exempted by law and/or allowed by District-level administration. The District shall identify and communicate the required prerequisite classes/courses. Additionally, each school shall develop and publish for students and parents any school-specific criteria and/or processes involved in the selection and assignment of classes.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY

A. The Superintendent is responsible for ensuring that this policy is followed.
